Re: Burning of copies of the Holy Quran by a Pastor in the United States (on September 11, 2010)

It is learnt that a Pastor in the United States is planning to burn copies of the Holy Quran purportedly as a mark of protest on the anniversary of the terror attack of 11th September, 2001. Needless to say that this kind of act is likely to invoke strong communal reaction.

As per our self adopted Guidelines, Editors of NBA are advised to exercise caution and restraint in reporting this episode.
